Holy Spirit School's mission is to empower a diverse community by providing academic excellence in a Catholic environment.

December 1, 2023

Dear Families,

I hope that you all had a wonderful Thanksgiving Break filled with rest and fun times with your family!

Sunday is the First Sunday of Advent. Our new pastor, Father Veevin Richard, will be installed as our new pastor at the 9:00am Mass. Bishop Fernandes will be the celebrant.

Our Gift to the Spirit Annual Fund campaign began this past week. Last year's campaign helped us to pay for the installation of new surveillance equipment and doors. This year's campaign will, once again, focus on raising funds to help us update our doors and other security systems on the property.

The School Spelling Bee for grades 5-8 took place on Thursday and Friday of this week! Congratulations to Yishak Bereda, our school champion for the second year in a row! I would like to congratulate all 12 competitors for making it such a great competition. Boy, do we have some great spellers at our school!!!

The final day for our food drive was this past Monday. Thank you to all who were able to donate goods. These food items will be donated to the Holy Spirit St. Vincent de Paul food pantry and will be included in the holiday food packages.

Bishop Hartley is hosting a Christmas Celebration on Wednesday, December 13th from 6:00PM to 8:00PM. Join them for crafts, games, and some refreshments before the Bishop Hartley Christmas band concert at 7:00PM. Check out the attached information to RSVP that you will be attending.

Next week, please look for information to come home about our upcoming holiday store. Students will be able to purchase inexpensive Christmas gifts for family members from December 11th through the 15th.

Our next all school Mass will take place on Friday next week to celebrate the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Students with gym classes that day may wear tennis shoes with their dress uniforms.

That's it for this week! Enjoy your weekend ahead!

Sincerely,
Miss Kathy Costello
